NOMINEE RECEIVES WARM GREETING BY SUPERIOR CITIZENS

REPUBLICAN STANDARD BEARER TO CONSULT WITH PRESIDENT COOLIDGE

SUPERIOR, Wis., July 16. (AP)—Secretary Hoover arrived here today at 8:27 a. m. on board his special train from Washington to visit President Coolidge. Sirens were blowing and bells ringing as the train pulled into the station with a large crowd awaiting.

The presidential nominee appeared on the rear platform of his car before the train came to a standstill. Loud acclamations greeted his appearance, coupled with cries of "He will give us the St. Lawrence canal."

Mrs. Hoover joined her husband on the platform, causing a new ovation, especially from the large contingent of women in the crowd. Former Senator Irvine L. Lenroot of Wisconsin was first to greet the party.

President Sanders, secretary to President Coolidge, and Col. Osmon Latrobe were in hand to convey to the Republican nominee the greetings of Mr. Coolidge.

Secretary Hoover smiled and waved at the crowd which pressed all around the car and prevented him and his party, including Representative and Mrs. Tilson of Connecticut, from descending to the platform.

Paraded Through Streets.
Police reinforcements made a way through the crowd and enabled Mr. Hoover and his party to abandon the train. Two bands struck up at this point, competing with the applause of the crowd.

Amidst the cheering and welcome, Mr. Hoover was introduced to members of the reception committee. In the automobile with Secretary Hoover, as the procession passed through the crowded streets, were Mr. Hoover and Col. Latrobe, aide to the president.

The Republican presidential nominee rode in an open car bareheaded, despite the unusually warm sun. He was applauded enthusiastically by the entire route through the town and responded by waving his straw hat, bowing and smiling. Mrs. Hoover seemed to appreciate the reception also, for she smilingly acknowledged the cheers and greetings of the bystanders.

Because of the intensity of the sun and the dust of the country roads, a closed car awaited the secretary at the edge of the city to complete the remainder of the 40-mile drive to Cedar Island Lodge.

To Be Coolidge Guest.
SUPERIOR, Wis., July 16.—(P)—Hospitality of the summer White House today was offered to Secretary Hoover by President Coolidge for a two day break in his long trip to the Pacific coast.

Arrived at Superior by a clamorous demonstration, the republican presidential nominee was called upon to participate in a parade organized in his honor before being greeted by Mr. Coolidge at Cedar Island Lodge.

Patterning his plan upon those elaborated by the city when Mr. Coolidge arrived a month ago, the local Hoover club had made preparations for a welcome as impressive as that which met the chief executive. All local agencies and organizations had been called upon to participate in the ceremonies and to urge the greatest number of citizens to welcome Mr. Hoover to Superior.

Special arrangements had been made at the station to keep large crowds in order and not to interfere with the orderly development of the program of the day. A band had been stationed here to blare its welcome.

No Speech By Hoover.
Superior had been warned that Mr. Hoover would make no speeches on this visit. The crowds were prepared therefore to be satisfied with nothing more than to see him appear on the rear platform of his train with Mrs. Hoover by his side.

The program next called for the republican standard bearer to lead a long parade of automobiles through the city on his way to the summer White House. Two more bands had been conscripted to set a slow pace along the city route and to attract as many onlookers as possible to the sidewalks.

The line of march closed at the city limits to allow Mr. Hoover to proceed alone to Cedar Island Lodge.

At Cedar Island Lodge Mr. Coolidge was reported as awaiting Secretary Hoover with the expectation of long political discussions before his guest's departure. Until Mr. Hoover's arrival, however, the chief executive was reported as having received no specific indication direct from the republican nominee as to what matters the latter wanted to consult President Coolidge about.

Hear Candidate's Views.
Mr. Coolidge, however, was said to expect to hear the candidate's views on almost all issues now pending, inasmuch as the secretary went in all likelihood to confer with the president regarding the speech of acceptance he will deliver August 11 at Palo Alto, Cal.

Conversations with Mr. Hoover will afford Mr. Coolidge an opportunity to complete the picture which Chairman Work of the republican national committee and Roy O. West, Illinois national committeeman, had sketched of republican views and policies in the forthcoming campaign. He will therefore be able to determine accurately the degree to which these

PLANS FOR CAMPAIGN BY TEXAS DEMOCRATS FOR AND AGAINST SMITH ARE FORMING

DALLAS, July 16.—(P)—Plans for campaigns among Texas Democrats, both for and against the election of Governor Alfred Smith were expected to be formulated within the next few days.

A statewide meeting of anti-Smith Democrats will be held here Tuesday when preparations will be made for carrying the fight against the New York governor into every precinct in the state.

With the return yesterday of J. C. Adams of Dallas, Democratic national committeeman for Texas, from a national committee meeting in New York, plans for the state campaign on behalf of the national standard bearer were expected to assume definite shape soon.

Dr. Carl C. Gregory, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, south of Dallas, added his name to that of the Texas church and political leaders who will not support the Democratic nominee, when he said in a sermon here yesterday that "I cannot vote for a Roman Catholic president of the United States."

Dr. Gregory's statement followed upon the heels of announcements Saturday by Alvin Moody, member of the state executive committee; Cate Selts, former Democratic national committeeman; and Marshall Hicks, San Antonio Democratic leader, that they would not support Smith.

Attorneys in the case in which Thomas B. Love, candidate for lieutenant-governor, is seeking to force the Cameron county Democratic executive committee to place his name on the primary ballot, expected the San Antonio court of civil appeals to hand down a decision today.

BODY OF MEXICO'S "LONE EAGLE" WILL GO HOME WEDNESDAY

ONE OF LARGEST MILITARY PROCESSIONS TO START BODY HOMEWARD

NEW YORK, July 16. (AP)—The body of Captain Emilio Carranza will be started on its journey to Mexico City Wednesday by one of the largest military funeral processions New York has ever seen.

The coffin is to be borne through the streets on a gun caisson draped with the Mexican and United States flags and followed by 10,000 soldiers, marching to the beat of muffled drums. Representatives of the diplomatic and consular corps and representatives of the nation, state and city are to follow.

Leaving here at three p. m. Wednesday over the Pennsylvania system, the special funeral train will make no stops until it reaches La Jara, where it is expected to arrive on Friday. There the body will be placed on a caisson and borne to the center of the international bridge where it will be turned over to the Mexican government. A detachment of 16 non-commissioned United States army officers will act as guard of honor for the body until Mexico City is reached.

Ten thousand persons, many of them Mexicans, yesterday viewed the body of Mexico's "Lone Eagle," killed last Thursday night in the pine belt of southern New Jersey when his plane crashed shortly after he had taken off from Roosevelt field for Mexico City.

No religious services will be held in this country, in line with the request of Arturo Elias, Mexican consul general in New York.

Sebastian Carranza, father of the flier, who is attached to the consul general's office here, did not visit the funeral establishment. He explained that he remembered his policies actually coincide with his own.

A fishing trip has been planned by President Coolidge for late today. Much as the chief executive has heard of Mr. Hoover's fishing skill, he has never had an opportunity to watch him in action. Although perhaps not to grant the greater angling ability of his cabinet officer, Mr. Coolidge thought that the superior knowledge he had acquired by now of the ways of the Brule trout might equalize his handicap and allow him to make a better showing than Mr. Hoover today.

HUNDREDS DROWNED WHILE ATTEMPTING ESCAPE FROM HEAT

MANY DROWNINGS, ACCIDENTS AND PROSTRATIONS FROM EXCESSIVE HEAT

LONDON, July 16. (AP)—All parts of Central and Southern Europe were suffering today from a heat wave which has claimed many victims through prostrations and drownings.

Five days of high temperatures in England culminated in England culminated Sunday with the mercury reaching 91. In Vienna it reached 112 and large parts of Germany, France, Belgium and Holland recorded the temperature at various points between 91 and 97.

Four deaths and eleven prostrations occurred in Belgium. There was a great increase in the number of bathing casualties in Austria, more than 100 bathers having been drowned in rivers and lakes since July. Many bathing accidents and heat prostrations were recorded in England.

Twenty-Two Drown.
VIENNA, July 16.—(P)—Thirteen persons were drowned in the Danube over the week end and as thousands of Viennese flocked to bathing resorts for relief from the heat wave which is holding Central Europe in its grip.

Reports from Budapest said that nine persons were drowned there while many suffered from sunstroke.

Water shortage is making itself felt.

boy's face too well to wish to see his death. He also said he would not accompany the body to Mexico City. "I hope to bury my sorrow in work here," he said.

The father sent only two messages in reply to the many telegrams of condolence that have reached him. One was to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, idol of the young Mexican flier, and the other to acting Mayor McKee.

Floral offerings continued to come to the undertaking parlors on Broadway where the body lies in state. Two of the most striking were the wreath of orchids sent by the flier's father and the one of roses, fashioned to represent an airplane which was sent by President Calles of Mexico.

P. G. Osborne and Tip Dunagan, both of the Emmett community, were business visitors in Corsicana Monday morning.

THREE EUROPEAN NATIONS OF FIRST CLASS READY SIGN

GERMANY, FRANCE AND ITALY GIVE APPROVAL OF KELLOGG'S PLAN

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—Secretary Kellogg's proposed treaty for renunciation of war today bore the approval of three great European nations.

To Germany's unqualified acceptance there was added over the week-end the endorsement of France and Italy. Neither nation mentioned any reservations or qualifications. Foreign Minister Briand declared simply that France is "entirely disposed to sign" while Premier Mussolini set forth that Italy is disposed to proceed "to placing its signature upon the covenant."

To add to the gratification of Washington officials, word was received that Great Britain stood ready to approve the treaty and might dispatch a note to that effect this week. Spain, too, was said to look favorably upon the American proposal.

The French and Italian notes were made public last night at the state department. In expressing its approval France reviewed the provisions of the treaty and took occasion "to render homage to the generous spirit in which the government of the United States has conceived this new manifestation of human fraternity."

The Italian note expressed approval of the interpretations of the proposed treaty, as conveyed by Secretary Kellogg in his recent note, and expressing willingness to sign.

Eleven Replies Awaited.
Including Great Britain and Spain, replies from eleven countries had yet to be received. A draft of the proposed treaty and Secretary Kellogg's note of interpretation were dispatched on June 23 to fourteen nations, including British dominions at the suggestion of the London government, and Belgium, Czechoslovakia and Poland at the suggestion of France.

No decision on how the proposed treaty will be signed is to be made until all have replied, but Secretary Kellogg is considering a suggestion that the foreign ministers of the contracting nations gather in Paris and affix signatures simultaneously. Eventually, every nation in the world is to be invited to join in the compact.

Under the proposed treaty, the signatory nations would renounce war as an instrument of national policy and agree to use only Pacific means in seeking a solution for whatever disputes might arise between them, regardless of their character or origin. Further,

River Closed to Navigation When Wine is Adrift

HAVRE, France, July 16.—The lower Seine was closed to navigation until further notice today because of the danger to ships' propellers from 6,000 barrels of wine adrift from the French steamer Moghreb Acsa. The vessel, coming from Algiers, went aground in the estuary near Monfleur.

The underwriters were offering a premium of four dollars a barrel to persons retrieving the wine.

The ship was stated to be a total loss together with the best of the cargo which consisted of wheat and sulphate. The cargo was estimated to be worth nearly a million dollars.

AMERICAN WOMEN RESCUED DURING STORM ON LAKE

BERNE, Switzerland, July 16.—(P) Seventeen American women, caught in a storm on Lake Lucerne in a motorboat whose engine had stopped, were rescued by the steamer Untwanden in the midst of the tempest. Most of the women had fainted and were lying helpless in the bottom of the motorboat when the steamer reached them.

should the pact be violated, all parties to the covenant would be freed automatically of their obligations thereunder to the treaty-breaking state.

British Comment.
LONDON, July 16.—(P)—Much comment has been aroused by a speech over the week end made by Sir William Jovison-Hicks, the home secretary, touching on the Kellogg proposals for the outlawry of war.

Sir William said: "We desire to appeal to the great United States, when our signature is placed along side that of other nations, and say to them: We are signing the pact at your request, yet we understand you are increasing your navy. I think we are entitled to comment quite respectfully and in quite a friendly way and say to America and to the whole world that deeds speak stronger than words."

These remarks aroused opposition newspapers today to scattering criticism of the home secretary.

SURFACE CASING SET ON WILDCAT TEST AT BAZETTE

MUCH INTEREST IS BEING SHOWN IN TEST OF J. K. HUGHES, ET AL

Operations on the J. K. Hughes et al Leichter No. 1, southeast of Bazette, were suspended temporarily Monday while 40 feet of surface casing was allowed to set. Plans called for resumption Monday evening, with full time work for the remainder of the test. The bit was down 535 feet in shale.

Considerable interest is being shown in this test near the center of a territory that has been regarded as the best hope of another Woodbine field since the bounds of the Powell pool were outlined. Several tests have been drilled in this area and some favorable sands have been found, but no producing strata have been located. A big gasser was brought in near the location of the new test several years ago by the Humphreys and Boyd interests.

Work was started on the test Friday and will be varied to completion as soon as possible. As the bit nears the critical depth, plans call for coring every change of formation.

Fred M. Allison, Corsicana drilling contractor, is drilling the test and has one of his Oklahoma rigs on the job. The contract calls for 3,200 feet and a test of the three Woodbine sands.

Mr. Allison also has a number of rigs in operation in the West Texas and Oklahoma fields. In the Coleman and Brownwood fields he has six rigs at work and he is moving two rigs into the St. Louis district in the Oklahoma fields. All of these wells are being drilled for the Barnsdall Oil company. Mr. Allison has been operating in the Seminole area for the past two years, drilling for the Barnsdall people.

VALUATION TEXAS
TAXABLE PROPERTY
SHOWS AN INCREASE

AUSTIN, July 16.—(P)—Taxable values of property in Texas totaled $3,975,409,266 Monday in a preliminary estimate prepared by Comptroller S. H. Terrell for use of the state automatic tax board, which was to meet later in the day to fix the tax rates for next year. Last year's valuation was $3,808,418,000.

STATE HOME ROAD IS AUTHORIZED BY STATE ROAD BODY

CONTRACT FOR LONG-DE- LAYED HIGHWAY TO BE LET AUGUST 1ST

AUSTIN, July 16.—(Sp)—The State highway commission in session here Monday morning authorized the construction of the highway from the State Orphan's Home, Corsicana, to the western city limit of Corsicana immediately. It is a distance of 1.1 miles.

The commission announced that the contract for the road would be let August 1.

J. S. Murchison, mayor of Corsicana; C. L. Jester, president of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce; F. P. McElwath, contractor; and Clem Hook and W. W. McClendon, county engineers of Navarro county, were present.

With the construction of this stretch of road, a concrete highway will be made from the western city limits to a point near the Drane store. The dump on this stretch of road and drainage structures were completed last year by McElwath, who has a considerable slice of the road contracts in Consolidated Road District No. 1. Private citizens of Corsicana and the commissioner's court secured funds for a portion of this road several years ago.

he would have any further comment, at least for the present. Mr. Smith also is standing on the ground that he should not be drawn out on the views of his political lieutenants on prohibition and other campaign issues, and has passed the word to newspaper men here that it will be a waste of time to seek his off-hand opinion on any such controversial subjects.

WHO SAID SUMMERLESS SUMMER.

While we pretend to no knowledge of meteorology, beyond that of the average layman who leaves his umbrella behind when it is about to pour and plants his zinnias too early and manages to contract a summer cold each year in June, we have a definite notion or two in connection with the weather, based upon a search of the records for many years past.

One is that whenever we come along to early July without once having wilted a collar or stuck to the office chair in late afternoon, and begin to congratulate ourselves that here at last is a summerless summer, we are talking through out hat. Always, immediately after the Fourth and from then on into October, we pay dearly for any unreasonable coolness in the preceding months.

The experience of the unscientific citizen who sheds his overcoat at the wrong time, always picks a rainy two weeks for his vacation, and lets the hydrangeas be killed by cold, is that the average temperature over a period of a year is about the same as that of any other; that soon or late we have winter, and also a summer; and that perhaps the most satisfactory year is the one in which seasons come in proper sequence and at conventional times. This raises no false hopes, gives the straw hat dealer a run for his money, encourages better baseball, and is in all ways desirable.

WAR AGAINST PROPAGANDA.

The National Education Association is to be applauded for coming to grips with the propaganda problem. This body of schoolmen wields a country-wide influence. It should be able to erect barriers which will prove insurmountable for all exponents of "pressure government."

While the association, in convention at Minneapolis, did not admit it in so many words, recent revelations made before the Federal Trade Commission in regard to propaganda disseminated by public utilities constitute the real reason for the educators' interest in the subject.

It is well, however, to keep the question of propaganda couched in general terms. The utilities may be the leading offenders. But they are not the only ones.

What the schoolmen should seek to do is to keep every axe-grinding man and every axe-grinding organization out of the class rooms. Sound education and the pleading of special causes are mutually exclusive interests.

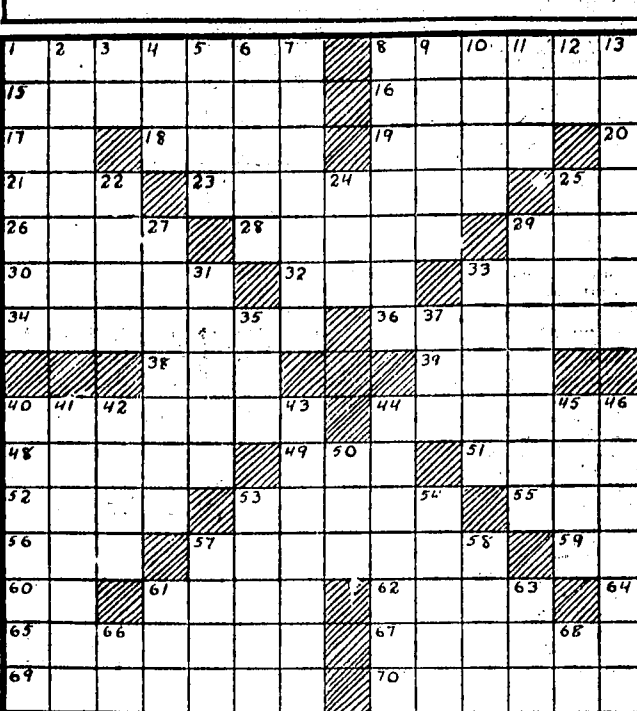

TOLL OF FOREST FIRES.

An epic of forest and brush fires reported in scattered sections of the country serves to emphasize the danger from this form of carelessness. Many communities this year have been menaced by fires which, when not deliberately set, originate in sheer carelessness.

It is possible in the great majority of cases to trace responsibility for such fires. Some punitive action should be taken where guilt can be established and to place the responsibility no stone should be left unturned.

Careless campers and those who start brush fires and let them get beyond control should be made to

Gas Tax Reverts to Two Cents Sept. 1

AUSTIN, July 14.—(P)—Assistant Attorney General D. A. Simmons ruled Friday that the state gasoline tax would revert to two cents per gallon on September 1. It now is three cents. The ruling will save several million dollars yearly to automobile owners.

There was some question as to whether the tax would drop to two cents, because it was not mentioned in the title of the act passed by the last legislature. The constitution provides that such an act must be referred to in the title as well as the body, but Attorneys General Simmons held that it merely was an oversight and the constitution must be construed liberally.

SENATOR MAYFIELD SPOKE BEFORE LARGE CROWD OF VOTERS

BASED HIS CANDIDACY UPON HIS RECORD DURING HIS FIRST TERM IN SENATE

Facing his candidacy for reelection to the United States senate on the merits of his record during the first term of his incumbency, Senator Earle B. Mayfield addressed a large audience on the courthouse lawn Saturday evening.

The senator dismissed his opponents with a few challenges pending during his speech without mentioning any of the candidates by name. He also recounted some of the stirring events enacted in the district courtroom during the campaign of 1922.

John T. Fortson, Corsicana banker and extensive land-owner, presided at the meeting Saturday night, and first introduced Judge C. F. Greenwood, member of the Dallas county democratic executive committee and former district attorney for Ellis county, who spoke briefly in favor of Senator Mayfield.

In his introductory remarks, Judge Greenwood stated that he never thought of Navarro county without remembering the late Roger Q. Mills, who put Texas on the political map of the world. He stated that he had learned the principles of democracy from Senator Mills.

The judge also stated that he was for Al Smith for president and was not afraid to say so, and uttered the wish that every man who jumped the party because of his nomination would be blacked off the ballot by the voters of Texas on July 28.

He asserted that he was against Mayfield five years ago, but that he is now a supporter of the Senator because he could find no fault with the record of the man in the senate during his five-year term, declaring that in his opinion, the field had made the best record of any Texas representative in the past ten years, with his efforts at restoring the sovereign rights of states. He favors him for reelection because he believes that a man can render more efficient service during his second term because of the knowledge that he has gained in the first.

In introducing Senator Mayfield, Mr. Fortson pointed out that the speaker was born and reared in East Texas near Troup, and after receiving his education in the high schools of Texas and at Southwestern university, attended the law school of the University of Texas, later making his home in Corsicana. He served later as state railroad commissioner, and in 1922 was elected to the United States senate, where he secured much needed legislation favoring the cotton growers of the south.

Senator Mayfield, in opening his remarks, stated that he was glad of the opportunity to present his candidacy to the people of Navarro county, to visit the city of Corsicana and to meet old friends. He said also that he appreciated the political recognition the Navarro county voters who had always given him a majority or at least a very substantial vote whenever he had placed his cause before them. His greatest ambition he asserted was to render real service to his constituents, and he wished to merit the confidence and esteem of his constituents. He stated that his address Saturday night was the fourteenth made during the week.

Tired of Bitter Fights.—Declaring that for 15 years Texas had been torn by bitter, personal, abusive, mud-slinging campaigns and that the state had gotten so tired of this kind of thing that it did not want re-election on such a campaign but on the merits of his record during his incumbency. He declared he would keep his campaign clean, no matter what methods were used by the other aspirants, asserting that if this kind of a campaign failed he did not know the people of Texas.

He stated that until he left Washington on May 4 to open his campaign in Texas, he had not missed a single day from his post while the senate was in session. Declaring the literature sent out by his opponents concerning his long vacations were false, he said that he did not know what a real vacation was, for each year when congress adjourned he returned to Texas and spent his time accepting invitations to spend the various parts of the state. He said that in 1927 he delivered 91 speeches in Texas and also that he had never accepted one penny for his trips, not even accepting his traveling expenses, believing that he owed such a duty to the people who had elected him.

He was advised by his friends more than 60 days ago to leave his post and begin his campaign since other members of congress had followed such a course. He declared his uniform reply was that so long as such problems as farm roads, flood control, Muscle Shoals, and tax reduction faced congress that he would stay with his post. He declared that he was not criticizing any of his opponents, and the reason for most of the mud-slinging was the fact that the candidate who carried on this kind of a campaign usually had very little qualification for the place he sought. He asserted that any man who had spent twelve years in the national congress should have some qualification to which he could point.

Reviewing Record.—In reviewing his record, Mayfield said that he was serving his first term in office, and the first two years were taken up fighting the contest to deprive him of his seat, so that all that he had done had been accomplished in the last three years.

He said that he was the author of the law giving the interstate commerce commission the authority to grant emergency freight rates to the relief of the Mississippi valley during 1925 because of the absence of such legislation, and pointed to the relief given the Mississippi valley during 1925 as a result of the measure.

He also claimed the authorship of the law which authorized the secretary of war to set the schedule of tolls across the river between Texas and Oklahoma, which had been the basis of complaint for years because of the alleged excessive charges. He referred to the recent hearing in Dallas on the bill for the construction of a toll bridge between Texas and Oklahoma, which had been the basis of complaint for years because of the alleged excessive charges.

He said that he was the co-author of the seven amendments to the interstate commerce commission act, which gave the shipper more time before demurrage charges were started and also more time in which to file claims against the railroads.

Mayfield introduced senate resolution No. 40 directing the secretary of agriculture to look into the causes for the fluctuations of the price of wheat and under the authority of the resolution, an investigation is now under way, with a report in sight for the next session of congress in December.

He also introduced a bill that became a law which enabled the secretary of agriculture to make such rules and regulations as would enable Texas cattlemen to bring their cattle to Mexico for sale. He predicted that within five years' time, West Texas would rank among the leading cotton-producing states of the nation. Considerable applause resulted from his statement that he had changed in the mode of dress he greatly decreased the consumption of cotton.

As a result of the investigation so far, Mayfield said that Dr. Youngblood had reported that bagging made from low-grade cotton would utilize two million bales yearly if used in place of jute. At present he reported that jute bagging is manufactured in India by steeper labor and is not subject to any tariff. The senator charged that the jute industry was protected by the republican party because of large campaign contributions from the manufacturers every four years. Another reason for the neglect of the tariff was that it would benefit the democratic South, in which the controlling party was not interested.

Commenting on the national platform adopted by the democrats at Houston, the senator said that the tariff plank which proposes no discrimination against the producers was one of the most constructive forward steps ever taken. Mayfield also acknowledged the authorship of the law requiring the secretary of agriculture to make an actual survey of the carryover on cotton each year, classified by staple and length and grade. He asserted that the law would eliminate much of the depression caused by former carryover reports which failed to state how much of the holdover was tenderable on future contracts.

Bill Held Up.—The senator also recounted that he introduced a bill that was unanimously passed in the senate making it a felony for the secretary of agriculture to make future price predictions, according to his account however the bill was sent to the house agricultural committee and is still there. He credited the loss of the measure to the leading members of congress who were campaigning in Texas.

In reply to the accusations that he was an expensive senator, he pointed out that he secured a reduction of the federal inheritance tax on the estate of the late John Seely amounting to $870,000 which would have come out of the state treasury. The estate was given to John Seely Hospital in Galveston.

In reply to the so-called "mud-slinging" charges of his opponents, Mayfield challenged them to show even one law which they had secured enacted during their term in office.

Taking up the contest over the election, which it has been charged cost the government $80,000 to $70,000, Mayfield said that he was blameless for the recount and trouble. He said that a margin of 136,000 votes should be sufficient, and that he wasn't hunting investigations. His expense in defeating the charges was paid by the senate, he disclosed.

Adding local interest to his address, said that he would never forget the Navarro county courthouse which was the scene of stirring events in 1922 when efforts were made to keep his name off the ticket. He said that the trouble cost him $7,000 which he finally paid after having to sell his home to secure the money.

He also asserted that he was the first candidate who had ever made a campaign free of mud-slinging in Texas in 1922 and that the efforts of the opposition was a bitter blow. He gave his address with the following appeal:

"The democrats of Texas are fair-minded people and will mete out exact justice to everyone. I know my appeal will not be denied. From the time I received the democratic nomination for United States senator in 1922 until the United States senate, in February, 1926, unanimously decided the contest of my election in my favor, I was hounded and pursued by my enemies, without shadow or turning. At every opportunity they thrust their poisonous spears into my side. During the long drawn-out contest, I practically slept on a bed of thorns. Detectives even followed Mrs. Mayfield as, in company with the wives of other senators, she returned the social calls of her friends, and they shadowed her day and night. Here Are Wonderful Savings That Challenge Comparison

Here's What It's All About

We have discontinued our Ranger, Texas, store and must dispose of the stock immediately. We have brought the stock here and consolidated it with our own in order to stage one of the biggest clothing sales ever attempted in Corsicana. Everything is standard grade merchandise from the country's best manufacturers and by including our own stock, we have created one of those "Once in a Blue Moon Opportunities," you often hear about but seldom see. There will be no "Chicken Hearted" reductions, but a genuine, deep down, sure fire, price slash that should move the goods in a hurry. Bargains like these were never offered here before. It's a "Double Header," a two-fold opportunity to save as you have never done before.

INTERESTING FACTS ON NAVARRO COUNTY AND JUNIOR COLLEGE

CHAIRMAN ALLISON CHAMBER COMMERCE COMMITTEE CONTINUES WORK

Continuing his efforts for the enactment of a suitable "junior college enabling act," Chairman A. A. Allison of the educational committee of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce has been busy during the past week in keeping the measure before the candidates for state office and before the legislators.

After the completion of the lengthy treatise on the situation which was printed in the Texas Outlook, official organ of the Texas State Teachers Association, Mr. Allison turned his attention to Navarro county and a short resume of the position of his county with its assets for a junior college has been added to the several hundred copies of the article reprinted from the Outlook.

The additional facts follow: NAVARRO COUNTY. From a Junior College Standpoint. The only county in Texas having a population of more than 50,000 without educational facilities above the high school level.

The only county in Texas with assessed values of more than forty million dollars without higher educational advantages.

Proximity to college promotes distance hinders attendance at college. Proof: Eight Texas colleges get more than 25 percent, one more than 50 percent, of their attendance from the counties of their respective locations.

In all instances preponderance of enrollment in college is from the county of location or counties nearby.

The reason: Increased educational intensity, intensified desire for educational attainments, and reduced cost of educational pursuit.

Notwithstanding her handicap of distance from college, Navarro county is rated in group two in attendance in college, based upon population, of the five groups into which Texas is divided in college enrollment.

Of the 264 counties in Texas, there are twenty-seven outstanding in their student enrollment in Texas colleges.

Those counties contain only 38 percent of the population and 37 percent of the wealth of the state, but furnish 50 percent of its college students. Navarro county is one of the twenty-seven.

If it is claimed that Navarro county's record of college enrollment is the result of financial advantage, the answer is: Navarro county enjoys the lowest rank in per capita wealth per college student in the state.

That is to say, Navarro county is sending more boys and girls to college on its financial status than possibly any other county in Texas.

proximity to college to the contrary notwithstanding.

The above are not idle statements. They are facts of record. What do they prove?

First: Navarro county has the requisite population on which to base support of a junior college, being the tenth county in Texas in population—higher than many counties having college—50,000 intelligent, forward moving citizens with educational purpose already developed.

Second: Navarro county has the requisite wealth on which to base support of a junior college, being thirteenth in the state at a low assessed valuation.

Third: Navarro county spends approximately enough every two years in sending her boys and girls to college elsewhere to build and equip a first class junior college.

Navarro county now sends 200 to 300 students away to college. A first class junior college, with her present creditable youthful desire for education would at once multiply her college attendance by two, by three, by ten, and prophecy alone can foretell the ultimate position the youth of the county would acquire in cultural and educational attainments and practical advantage.

Navarro county will soon enjoy a system of roads inferior to none. A junior college, centrally located, would hold out to every aspiring youth in the county opportunity for two years college training, at their very doors, while still under parental care, and soon make our citizenship the outstanding example of loyalty to the growing generation and those to come, even as our forebears endured hardships and privation to provide a country worthy of the civilization they conceived.

CHILD SERIOUSLY HURT WHEN STRUCK BY WAGON MONDAY

Bobby Powell, 17-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Brince Powell, 621 North Commerce street, sustained a fractured right thigh Monday morning about 8:30 o'clock when he was struck by a vegetable wagon, reported to have been driven by a youth by the name of Frank Borsellino. The little fellow could be expected Monday afternoon.

According to reports of the accident, the baby was playing on the sidewalk near the street and that the driver of the wagon did not know he had struck the child until he was stopped by M. L. Huff who was nearby.

At first it was feared that the little fellow had sustained internal injuries, but an examination revealed only the broken thigh.

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION MADE NEW DESIGNATION

STATE HOME ROAD GETS $16,000 FROM STATE FUNDS MONDAY

AUSTIN, July 16.—(AP)—The State highway commission made a state road designation from Jourdanton to Rio Grande City Monday subject to legislative approval, making another route to the Rio Grande valley.

The designation gives San Antonio another southeast express to Atascosa and a new route to McAllen, Duval, Jim Hogg and Starr counties.

Surveying is expected to begin soon, with a hard surface road in view.

The commission would not consider favorably another San Antonio Jourdanton route, running west of present highway number 9. It would have touched the artesian fruit and truck raising belt.

Participation of state funds in payment of tract already let for surfacing highway 123 from Seguin north toward San Marcos for 8.2 miles, was approved. The commission also approved a concrete highway for eight miles of highway 12A from Olton west in Webb county.

Sixteen thousand dollars aid was granted Navarro county for a concrete top on highway 24 from Corsicana to the State orphan's home, one mile. The commission approved a motion to take over highway 23 for maintenance from Vernon south to the Baylor county line in Wilbourn county.

An estimate was ordered submitted to the commission soon for a proposed new route from San Antonio to Fort Stockton.

WEALTHY OIL MAN WEDS HIS FORMER WARD AND NIECE

E. W. MARLAND MARRIED TO MISS LYDIA MILLER ROBERTS IN PENNSYLVANIA

PHILADELPHIA, July 14.—(AP)—Ernest Whitworth Marland, 54, oil promoter of Oklahoma and Texas, wed Miss Lydia Miller Roberts, 28, of Philadelphia, his former adopted daughter and niece by marriage, were married today at the home of the bride's parents at Flourtown, near Philadelphia.

The pair left for their honeymoon by motor. They will make their home at Ponca City, Okla.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Nathaniel E. Gordon, pastor of the Episcopal church, Whitehall, Pa. The bride was given away by her father, George F. Roberts. There were no attendants and only a few guests.

Marland adopted Miss Roberts 12 years ago. His first wife, who died June 6, 1926, was a sister of Miss Roberts' mother. She was an invalid. Her adoption was announced in January to permit the marriage.

Mr. Marland is president of the Marland Oil company with headquarters at Ponca City, where he recently opened a mansion, said to be valued at $200,000.

SPECIAL FEDERAL GRAND JURY RETURNS THREE INDICTMENTS

SENSATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS AND ARRESTS EXPECTED IN CASE

BILOXI, Miss., July 14.—(AP)—Sensational developments with the probable arrest of three persons indicted by the special federal grand jury investigating distribution of patronage in Mississippi were expected today.

The indictments came as a surprise late yesterday in a partial report of the jury, which resumed session today after examining a handful of the 200 witnesses, including men and women postmasters, political leaders and bankers summoned to testify about rumors of "barracking" post-office jobs.

Another development in connection with the investigation was the arrest of Alfred F. Cook, former postmaster at Lakeville, Miss., who was charged with false postal entries during his tenure in office. He was arrested while here as a witness and was jailed in default of bond.

The names of those against whom indictments were returned were withheld.

Following testimony of officials of the State Guaranty Bank of Gage who carried before the grand jury records of the affairs of A. P. Russell, U. S. marshal for the Southern district, an additional writ was issued summoning J. T. Thomas, Grenada, Miss., banker.

Thomas was ordered to bring with him correspondence between himself and Senator Pat Harrison, Democrat, Miss., and between Thomas and Perry Howard, negro republican national committeeman, between the dates of July 1, 1926, and July 10, 1928.

WALLER HAS BIG LOSS FROM FIRE EARLY MONDAY

HOUSTON, July 16.—(AP)—A fire at Waller, about 20 miles from Houston, which has destroyed seven business buildings, was gotten under control shortly before noon today.

The fire broke out in the morning at about 10 o'clock, and spread rapidly to the north and east, destroying a large building, a garage, a gas station, and a number of smaller buildings.

The fire was caused by a gas leak in a garage. The gas had leaked from a tank and had ignited.

The fire was fought by the Houston fire department and by local volunteers. The fire was under control by noon today.

POSTAL INSPECTOR AND ASSISTANT ARE SHOT IN ATLANTA

ATLANTA, July 16.—(AP)—Joe P. Johnston, postoffice inspector in charge of the local office, and Morgan Miller, a member of his staff, were shot on a downtown street here today by Harry M. Derring, a 54-year old man of Armenian descent, who said he had been discharged as a mail carrier in Boston for his "liberal" views.

Grisswell was said to have been seriously wounded while Johnston suffered only a flesh wound in the shoulder.

Arrested by police Deeran was quoted as saying that he had meant to "get" both men. So far as local authorities could learn, however, neither of the federal operatives had anything to do with his Boston discharge.

After emptying the revolver, Deeran ran into a nearby basement where no one dared pursue him until the arrival of officers, who made the arrest.

Grisswell was shot through the throat and arm.

Negro Committeeman Placed Under Arrest

JACKSON, Miss., July 14.—(AP)—E. L. Patton, negro Republican leader, was placed under arrest here today on six indictments brought by the federal grand jury at Biloxi, charging him with "the purchase and sale of public offices."

These arrests were the first growing out of the grand jury investigation now under way at Biloxi to get at the bottom of federal patronage in Mississippi.

Patton has long been a familiar figure in Republican affairs in Mississippi, and has served on every state delegation to the national convention during the past twenty-five years.

On advice of counsel he declined to make a statement.

NO UNITED EFFORT BY METHODISTS BE MADE AGAINST AL

DALLAS, July 16.—(AP)—Methodist ministers of Texas will make no united effort to prevent the state voting for Governor Alfred E. Smith for president, but the majority will oppose him and few will support him.

This opinion was voiced by presiding elders, pastors and college presidents of the Texas and North Texas conferences of the church who conferred today in Dallas on an "actively ecumenical business."

The Rev. Sam R. Hay of Houston, presiding bishop, declared that politics would not be discussed at the meeting and refused to make a statement on the subject regarding the political situation, but other ministers at the conference took more interest in the subject.

Dr. J. W. Hunt, president of McMurry College at Abilene, announced that he would dissent the state-wide anti-Smith rally here tomorrow night.

OTHER ARRESTS IN CONNECTION ALLEGED SALE OF PATRONAGE

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(AP)—Ferry W. Howard, negro special assistant to the attorney general, is charged with conspiracy to violate the law prohibiting the sale of a federal office in an indictment which has been returned by a grand jury at Biloxi.

The indictment specifically charged that Howard and others indicted with him received $1,500 in the deal for the appointment of a member of the United States marshal's office.

Howard, who was in Washington today, declined to comment upon the return of the indictment, which is now on its way to Washington to be served.

APPEALS COURT TO RENDER DECISION IN LOVE CASE SOON

SAN ANTONIO, July 16.—(AP)—Members of the fourth court of civil appeals worked here today in the preparation of a decision in the case in which Senator Thomas B. Love is seeking to have his name printed as a candidate for the democratic nomination for lieutenant governor.

Chief Justice W. S. Fly indicated that a decision might be ready by tomorrow. Love, having declared that he would not vote for the democratic nominee, was barred from the democratic primary ticket by the executive committee of Cameron county.

The senator maintained that the committee had exceeded its jurisdiction in taking such action since Love's name had been certified to the committee by the state executive committee. The case was argued before the court Saturday. Love is seeking a writ of mandamus to compel the committee to include his name on the ballot.
